Floyd County Georgia
RFQ 16-0624 E-Waste Services

Scope of Work and Qualifications

General information: The Rome Floyd Recycling Center located at 405 Watters St Rome Ga. 30161 has several electronics collection events per year where the public can bring in their E-waste.

Floyd County is seeking to contract with a responsible R2 certified contractor to haul these items from our facility and provide proof of disposal.

Floyd County will provide labor to assist in loading the E-Waste into the provider's equipment. The Contractor will provide instructions on loading. The contractor will be responsible for the stability of the load.

Terms: The service period will be guaranteed for 1 year from the date of the award. The contractor may elect to continue the service agreement under the same terms and conditions for 2 annual rollovers should both the county and the contractor agree. A 30 day notice will be provided by the contractor prior to the expiration of each annual agreement accepting or rejecting the service agreement.

Contractor must be R2 Certified and provide proof of such: Responsible Recycling© (R2) Certification. The Responsible Recycling Practices Standard (R2:2013) certification, which is recognized by the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), is a set of voluntary principles and guidelines designed to promote and assess responsible practices for electronics recyclers.

Currently, the Recycling Center has approximately 10 tons of E-Waste on site that has been collected. 50% by volume 70% by weight of this E-Waste is TV's. The selected contractor would be required to pick up this material prior to the next E-Waste event in July.

The following historical E-Waste data is provided for reference:

January 2015	42,605 LBS
March 2015	18,925 LBS
May 2015	45,505 LBS
July 2015	48,794 LBS
September 2015	21,093 LBS
November 2015	11,515 LBS
January 2016	13,165 LBS
March 2016	21,995 LBS

The selected contractor will have the option to deploy equipment on the Friday before or to bring in equipment and elect to pick up the E-Waste on the following Monday. Our preference is the Friday before based on our labor force. Contractor will also provide pallets, Gaylord's, Shrink wrap and packaging tape or provide compensation to us if we use our Gaylord's or pallets. Should the collected E-Waste exceed the hauling capacity of the contractor's equipment on the day of the event or the following Monday, the contractor will return and within 7 Days and collect ALL REMAINING E-WASTE. Floyd County recommends the use of 53' Trailers. There will be no additional fee's assessed should this happen.

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on the "Name" line to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the Part I instructions on page 3. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN on page 3.

Note. If the account is in more than one name, see the chart on page 4 for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me), and
2. I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding, and
3. I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below).

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions on page 4.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income.

Note. If a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien,
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States,
- An estate (other than a foreign estate), or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax on any foreign partners' share of income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, a partnership is required to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid withholding on your share of partnership income.
