Application Requirements
All Applications must be complete and include required support materials listed on the reverse side of this form.

Incomplete applications will NOT be reviewed for administrative approval.

Submission
Applications may be submitted to the Community Planner or any Staff member within the Rome-Floyd Planning Department located in the Carnegie Library in 607 Broad Street.

Review of Application
The Community Planner may not be available to review the application immediately upon submission but a reasonable effort will be made to complete the review process within three (3) business days of receiving the application. However, the Community Planner is not required by law to review the application, and may submit any application for Administrative Review and Approval to the Rome Historic Preservation Commission as an application for a Certificate of Appropriateness.

Denial of Application
If the project is not compatible with the adopted design guidelines or constitutes a material change requiring a Certificate of Appropriateness, the application will be denied and a building permit shall not be issued for the project. If an application is denied, upon applicant’s request, such application will be submitted to the Rome Historic Preservation Commission for review. Applicant must request the application be submitted to the Rome Historic Preservation Commission within ten (10) days of the application being denied.

Administrator Approval is for only those elements of the project included in this application as described in the application. Any additional work performed or modification of the described project must be approved by staff of the Rome Historic Preservation Commission prior to work being performed.

ADMNCANAL REGULATIONS MAY APPLY

Administrative Approval is not a building permit or zoning verification form. It does not relieve the responsibility of filing for and obtaining a building permit or zoning verification form and following all other applicable codes and requirements of the City of Rome, Floyd County, and State of Georgia.

AUTHORIZATION

In consideration for the City of Rome’s review of this application for a proposed change to a property within a Rome Local Historic District, the applicant agrees to allow access, for inspection purposes, to the City of Rome and its agents and employees, during the review process, at the time work is performed and upon completion of the project.
